

New Jersey's "Do Not Call" legislation is an important piece of sanity for those of us who value our limited time at home with family. We do not all have caller ID and phone blocks, which cost extra on many phone plans, so please do not change our protective and necessary legislation.